Happy February Members!

January was a busy month for many artisans. As you know the 8th Annual Joe Reyes Memorial Art Show was held in conjunction with the Tractor Pull Rodeo Show. We had 11 canopies at the Tractor Pull where there were more than 400 people stopping by our canopies. We also had six artists at The Coyote Wash Clubhouse. We also sold four of the 6”x6” canvas paintings that you, our members painted and donated. This money goes directly to Kids in Art so please continue to paint those canvases. There are more canvases available. It was a busy two days and we were grateful for all the help setting up and tearing down. We couldn’t have done it without you. We also have three shows coming up this month. If you haven’t signed up for any of them, it’s still not too late.
