Greetings & Salutations! A very Happy New Year to all.

Welcome back to another fun filled season of Art. As many of you know, the Art Guild held its inaugural Artisan's Festival on Dec. 6, 2025 at the Coyote Wash Golf Course. First off, a HUGE SHOUT OUT and THANK YOU to all the members who worked their butts off for setting up and tearing down the canopies. This was not an easy task and took two days from start to finish. Secondly, we received POSTIVE reviews from visitors and artist alike. Everyone loved the new venue and setup, which made it much easier to visit all artists. The foot traffic was constantly flowing. There were several new artists who joined the Guild and sold many of their goods. All in all, it was a great success! So, thank you to all for participating.

Our next event will be on January 16-17, the 10th Annual Joe Reyes Memorial Art show. We will have artist located at the Tractor Pull and on the patio at the Coyote Wash Golf Course. There is still plenty of time to sign up for this two-day event. There will be several visitors from different states coming to see the annual Tractor Pull. This will be a great opportunity to show your art. For more information call Kathy Smith: 928-723-5564.

See you on January 12, 2026 for the next member meeting at 10:00 am.
