Happy March

What an amazing and busy February we had! The Art Guild members were invited to attend the VFW Arts & Crafts Show, which was a first for both organizations. It was a great way to meet new people, expose our group and we even signed up new members. We also had back-to-back weekend Pioneer Art Shows. The canopies were left up over the week to be ready for the following week. There was great attendance both weekends, and our new members enjoyed showing their stuff at the events. For those who attended all the events and participated in one way or another, it would not have been possible without you. Thank you to ALL the volunteers who worked tirelessly throughout the season setting up and taking down canopies. Because of you all of our events were a huge success! PLEASE be prepared to help setup/tear-down canopies next season, all hands-on deck makes the work load easier for everyone there. We look forward to next season when we all come together for our first event, The Artisan's Festival. Date TBD. See you next November. Have a great summer.
